think the three colors are the following: a hot peach color (like, really bright), a purple-mauve-y color but more purple (kinda like Anastasia vintage but more electric), and a baby pink color but super bright and pigmented taryneuv I'm hoping for an opal or holographic highlight kryssmeliss Oh shit but wait I totally forgot about metallics. I could totally see there being a metallic rose gold in there.

"mama", she should have a halo green HIGHLIGHTER and the packaging should be green of course. @adoredelano should have a lipstick shade named "PARTYYY" and one named "hogbody" (90's grunge brown?). You should come out with a chunky glitter highlighter for her and some glitter glue. Her packaging should be halo or like an electric purple, something that makes you want to party! ❤️ this so JS will see.

_megaturtle @cherryceren74 lmao still a Fucking rip off sis 😏 learn your brands @blackmooncosmetics has had the holographic moon logo waaay before manny officertwerk Have you seen their packaging though? They could have done the collab in pink or not used the holographic font so it would look just a little less like bmc logo and packaging though. @cherryceren74 cherryceren74 @officertwerk @_megaturtle yh true... I just don't think that manny and jeffree would do that officertwerk Maybe not them purposely, but I wouldn't put it past the designer they hired to use it as inspiration thinking that no one would notice. Or quite possibly it's totally a coincidence, but I think it would be kind of them to change officertwerk Seriously, I thought this was a collab with @blackmooncosmetics when I first saw it. Not cool to rip off of smaller brands labels, logos, and packaging.

officertwerk @crucifucked with you 100%! I thought this was a collab with bmc at first. The test for trademark infringement is consumer confusion! There ya go. They have a good case in my opinion.

Kayla Marie Webb I love jeffree and manny but I would just like to know if anyone sees the similarities? Maybe its just coincidence? Im really confused because I thought this was a really original idea for packaging until someone sent this to me.
